

Caves of Dreams (Cuevas de Sueños)

Art Holiday

October 15th – 22nd 2016

Indigo You
Engage. Involve. Belong.

The Caves of Dreams Art Holiday is based at the Al Jatib cave hotel close to the small town of Baza in southern Spain. The Art holiday is based in and around the unspoilt, beautiful and rugged part of Andalucia with breath taking scenery including the waterfalls and Gorges of Castril to the mountains that provide a dramatic backdrop for stunning turquoise lake Negratin.

The Caves of Dreams Art Holiday includes:

- Drawing, painting, sketching, using a variety of art mediums (basic art materials and equipment provided) and art instruction including guidance with facilitation by professionally qualified art tutor Beverley Chapelhow. Sessions are full days, with lunch breaks. Approx 5-6 hours participatory time each day
- All meals (breakfast, lunch and dinner including one drink with each meal). All meals are ordered one day in advance to ensure dietary requirements are met
- Use of pool and gardens at the hotel
- Transfers to and from Malaga airport (approx. 2 hours 15 mins each way)
- All trips relating to the art holiday itinerary. Other local destinations by arrangement
- A list of suggested art equipment and materials for your stay

Total cost for the week per person is being offered at a first time sensational price of £750

Please note that the price does not include return flights from UK (Manchester), any car hire, taxis, further drinks or snacks during the week

For further information please contact:

Clive Taylor on clivetaylor@indigoyou.co.uk or phone 07815314915 (in Spain)

Beverley Chapelhow on Beverley.chapelhow@hotmail.co.uk or phone 07742060273 (UK)

Check out the amazing cave hotel at www.aljatib.com